Reflections on:

• The Father of Mercies

In this Year of Mercy, there are many who think there is an opposition or tension between mercy and justice, but this is a misunderstanding. Dr. Hahn will show that mercy goes beyond justice, but not against it. Throughout salvation history, but most fully at the cross, God gradually reveals His mercy. Many times taken for granted, the fact is that God's Fatherhood is the single most revolutionary concept of the faith and the everlasting source of mercy.

• Evangelizing Catholics: The Joy of the Gospel & the New Evangelization

What is the New Evangelization and why is it the greatest priority of the Church at this time? How do we as Catholics understand the need for - and the process of - conversion? This talk also looks at how we can share our faith with family members, friends and co-workers. It speaks of the joy of ongoing conversion. As Pope Francis reminds us, there is even a need for "evangelizing the baptized".

Enjoy being Catholic and then share your joy!

ABOUT SCOTT HAHN

As an exceptionally popular speaker and teacher, Dr. Hahn has delivered numerous talks nationally and internationally on a wide variety of topics related to Scripture and the Catholic faith. His talks have been effective in helping thousands of Protestants and fallen away Catholics to (re)embrace the Catholic faith.

He holds the Fr. Michael Scanlan Chair of Biblical Theology and the New Evangelization at the Franciscan University of Steubenville, where he has taught since 1990. He is the founder and president of the St. Paul Center for Biblical Theology. In 2014 Dr. Hahn became a Distinguished Visiting Professor of Biblical Theology at Mundelein Seminary (Chicago).
