H'm

questions along The Way

In our daily living, we face complex questions and seek even more complex solutions. Yet it seems at times in our life of faith questions are discounted and diminished. Some even say asking questions indicates a weakness or doubt of faith. H'm.

A person of mature faith and mature relationships, like the prophets and disciples of scripture, will ask many questions. And that person can expect Jesus will ask questions, too. Perhaps questions deepen faith rather more than doubt it.

Relying on the foundational structure of the Spiritual Exercises of Ignatius, this retreat embarks along The Way through the lens of God's questions. Join us for the journey!
