

Fr. Joe Tetlow Presents
A Series of Workshops
As Part of Our Saturdays of Reflection

From Chaos to Glory:
About the Next Good Thing to Do.

March 4, 2023
9AM- Noon

March, Saturday as Lent Begins

God has revealed to us that the three Persons of the Blessed Trinity accompany each other and one another in perfect harmony, eternally, beyond measure. Thus, the Father accompanies the Son and Spirit, and the Son, the Father and the Spirit; and the Spirit, the Father and the Son. At the peak of His creating, God gave Adam life so humankind could become many and master the earth. But God stays with His creation: I will be your shepherd, first through kings and prophets, but finally, coming Himself. Then the Word became flesh—not man or human, but flesh—stardust is in the body of Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus, just as we do, faced what He said I must do. This way, as He said, I have given you and example.

His whole life went on in this context: The whole of creation groans like a woman in childbirth—and will until our glory is revealed.

About the Next Good Thing: We live as Go does, accompanying those God gives us — close, compassionate, and tender.
