

MORE: THERE IS ENOUGH

RETREAT FOR MEN SEPTEMBER 16 - 19, 2021

Even though we live in the land of plenty, a doctrine of scarcity plagues us. We are tempted to believe there isn't enough of what we need to go around and the thought of scarcity freezes our head, heart, and hands.

This retreat invites you to set aside the noise of scarcity and listen to the voice of Jesus. "I came that you may have life, and have it abundantly!" What might happen when you recognize there is more love, more mercy, more kindness, more courage, more life available than you dare to dream? What might it mean when it dawns no matter your own hopes and dreams, God is hoping and dreaming so much more for you.

Using the dynamics of the Spiritual Exercises of St Ignatius as framework, the prayer of the retreat will lead to encounter with the Giver of Life, Jesus. Let us listen to His invitation to "come and see."

Register Online

Or Call 940-321-6020

Carol Atwell Ackels
Retreat Director

Carol is Director of the Ignatian Spirituality Institute. A spiritual director in the Ignatian tradition and Senior Ignatian Fellow of Montserrat Jesuit Retreat House, she serves as retreat director of the Spiritual Exercises of St Ignatius in various formats. She offers weekend retreats, the Exercises in Everyday Life, and one-to-one directed retreats at Jesuit retreat houses across the United States. She launched and continues to give workshops to shape persons, Jesuits and lay, who are moving into retreat ministry and spiritual companionship in the Ignatian tradition. Carol co-authored with Joe Tetlow, S.J. the twelve week Ignatian retreat Finding Christ in the World, and worked with Anthony Borrow, S.J. developing the Toward Greater Freedom retreat. Carol holds a J.D. from SMU Dedman School of Law, Dallas and a Master of Art in Theology and Leadership from Gonzaga University, Spokane. She and her husband reside in Dallas and are the parents of five adult children.