The Sacrament of the Present Moment
Presented by Mrs. Ann S. Lee

The notion of “the sacrament of the present moment” comes to us in a brief text published in 1885. Fr Jean-Pierre de Caussade, SJ referencing Our Lady’s conversation with Gabriel points out that all the splendor of the moment would have meant nothing to her unless she had wanted to yield to the will of God. He continues, “Filled with joy, she regarded everything she had to do or suffer at any moment of her life as a gift from Him.”
