Notes:

- Part-time employees eligible for holiday pay should generally receive holiday hours based on their regularly scheduled work hours for the day on which the holiday is observed.
- Holiday hours and other paid leave hours do not count toward hours worked for overtime calculation purposes.
- Non-exempt employees required to work on an observed holiday must accurately record all hours worked.
- Due to the nature of exempt and ministry-related positions, exempt employees may occasionally work during diocesan holidays or related events. Alternate time off is not automatically granted and remains subject to supervisory discretion and operational needs.
