ABOUT THE JUBILEE YEAR OF HOPE

On May 9, 2024, Pope Francis released a Papal Bull of Indiction which formally announced the Jubilee Year of Hope. The document was entitled Spes non condfundit --"Hope does not disappoint" (Rom 5:5). In it, Pope Francis writes on the reasons for this theme for the Jubilee Year:

In the spirit of hope, the Apostle Paul addressed these words of encouragement to the Christian community of Rome. Hope is also the central message of the coming Jubilee that, in accordance with an ancient tradition, the Pope proclaims every twenty-five years.... For everyone, may the Jubilee be a moment of genuine, personal encounter with the Lord Jesus, the "door" (cf. Jn 10:7.9) of our salvation, whom the Church is charged to proclaim always, everywhere and to all as "our hope" (1 Tim 1:1).

Everyone knows what it is to hope. In the heart of each person, hope dwells as the desire and expectation of good things to come, despite our not knowing what the future may bring. Even so, uncertainty about the future may at times give rise to conflicting feelings, ranging from confident trust to apprehensiveness, from serenity to anxiety, from firm conviction to hesitation and doubt. Often we come across people who are discouraged, pessimistic and cynical about the future, as if nothing could possibly bring them happiness. For all of us, may the Jubilee be an opportunity to be renewed in hope. God's word helps us find reasons for that hope. ... (1).

IMPORTANT VATICAN DATES

	(Christmas Eve) Pope Francis will open the Holy Door at the Basilica of St Peter. thus inaugurating the Ordinary Jubilee.
	(Feast of the Holy Family) Pope Francis will open the Holy Door of his cathedral, Saint John Lateran, which on November 9, 2024 will celebrate the 1700 th anniversary of its dedication.
January 1, 2025	(Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God) Pope Francis will open the Holy Door of the Papal Basilica of Saint Mary Major.
	(Epiphany) The Holy Father will open the Holy Door of the Papal Basilica of Saint Paul Outside the Walls. These last three Holy Doors will be closed on Sunday, December 28, 2025.
-	The Ordinary Jubilee will conclude with the closing of the Holy Door in the Papal Basilica of Saint Peter in the Vatican on the Solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord.
DIOCESAN DATES 2024	A Year of Prayer, in preparation for the Jubilee Year (Feast of the Holy Family) Diocesan Bishops around the world are to celebrate Holy Mass at their cathedral (and co-cathedral) as the solemn opening of the Jubilee Year in their own diocese. A special rite has already been sent to all the Bishops [and their diocesan Offices of Worship]; it includes processing with a Cross, from a suitable place to the cathedral. The cross will reside in the cathedral for a full year. This rite is for the cathedral only. Please note that a "holy door" is not envisioned.
December 30, ff.	A diocesan "pilgrimage that sets out from a church chosen for the collectio and then proceeds to the cathedral can serve to symbolize the journey of hope that, illumined by the word of God, unites all the faithful. In the course of this pilgrimage, passages from the present Document can be read, along with the announcement of the Jubilee Indulgence to be gained in accordance with the prescriptions" (Spes non confundit, 6).

December 28, 2025

The Holy Year will conclude in the particular Churches; in the course of the year, every effort should be made to enable the People of God to participate fully in its proclamation of hope in God's grace and in the signs that attest to its efficacy.

"During the Holy Year, may the light of Christian hope illumine every man and woman, as a message of God's love addressed to all! And may the Church bear faithful witness to this message in every part of the world!" (Spes non confundit, 6).

ABOUT THE LOGO FOR THE JUBILEE YEAR

The logo shows four stylized figures, representing all of humanity, coming from the four corners of the earth. They embrace each other to indicate the solidarity and fraternity which should unite all peoples. The figure at the front is holding onto the cross. It is not only the sign of the faith which this lead figure embraces, but also of hope, which can never be abandoned, because we are always in need of hope, especially in our moments of greatest need. There are the rough waves under the figures, symbolizing the fact that life's pilgrimage does not always go smoothly in calm waters. Often the circumstances of daily life and events in the wider world require a greater call to hope. That's why we should pay special attention to the lower part of the cross which has been elongated and turned into the shape of an anchor which is let down into the waves. The anchor is well known as a symbol of hope. In maritime jargon the 'anchor of hope' refers to the reserve anchor used by vessels involved in emergency maneuvers to stabilize the ship during storms. It is worth noting that the image illustrates the pilgrim's journey not as an individual undertaking, but rather as something communal, marked by an increasing dynamism leading one ever closer to the cross. The cross in the logo is by no means static, but it is also dynamic. It bends down towards humanity, not leaving human beings alone, but stretching out to them to offer the certainty of its presence and the security of hope. At the bottom of the logo is the motto of the 2025 Jubilee Year: Pilgrims of Hope, represented in green letters.

PREPARATION

- Hospitality Ministers should be recruited to welcome the assembly as they arrive and to distribute worship aids.
- At least two readers should be appointed to proclaim the reading(s), to read the Examination of Conscience, and to lead the Litany of Repentance. They are to be seated in the assembly.
- A musician and cantor(s) should lead the assembly in song. Instrumental music may be played during individual confession. (A list of music suggestions is included herein.)
- A Bible -which is approved for liturgical use in the dioceses of the United States, i.e., NABRE -- or Lectionary should be readied with the appropriate readings.
- Lighting may be subdued. Candle(s) should be lit at the ambo. The appropriate number of candles should be lit on the Advent Wreath.
- Stations for confessors should be prepared. Priests might stand or sit in isolated areas around the main body of the church to receive penitents. In this way, the communal nature of the rite is maintained. Candles may light these stations.
- For the sake of simplicity, the presider alone or the presider and preacher could participate in the procession. Other priests could be seated in the sanctuary or in a reserved area before the liturgy begins.

LITURGICAL SONG

GREETING

Presider: Grace, mercy, and peace to you from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Savior.

All: And with your spirit.

INTRODUCTION [SAMPLE]

Presider: In these or similar words...

In this Advent season, we prepare to celebrate the historic coming of the Messiah over two thousand years ago. We also recognize that God is with us now and that God has saved us by his own Death and Resurrection. Finally, we prepare for God's coming at the end of time.

In our prayer and even in our decorations and festivities, we probably do a pretty good job of preparing for the celebration of the first coming – the birth of our Savior in Bethlehem. But perhaps it is the final coming of the Lord which often eludes us.

How are we preparing to meet the Lord at his coming? Are we living a Christian life and serving our neighbor in such a way that we would feel confident to see his face and to enter into his glory?

In this Sacrament of Reconciliation, let us be mindful of those times when we have failed to follow God's commandments. We come here tonight [today] to ask his forgiveness and to seek the grace to do better.

Especially in this Advent season, we are mindful of God's promises. Let us, again and still, remember his kindness and faithfulness, trust in God's mercy, and rest in God's peace.

PRAYER

Presider: Let us pray, brothers and sisters,

that the Advent of the Lord,

whose mystery we shall celebrate in the coming solemnities, will find us watching and prepared.

Silent prayer

We ask pardon for our offenses, O God, Creator of the heavens, so that, as we await the appearing of our Redeemer, we may be found worthy to receive forgiveness for our sins.

Through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen

THE CELEBRATION OF THE WORD OF GOD

The following are suggested readings. Alternative readings may be selected. The preacher may wish to use one, two, or three readings. If only one is chosen, it is preferable that it be the gospel.

For ease of rehearsal, the readings are printed elsewhere in this booklet. A Lectionary or Bible --which has been approved for liturgical use in the dioceses of the United States, i.e., NABRE - should be used during the liturgy.

FIRST READING Isaiah 35:1-6a, 10

God himself will come to save us.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Psalm 85:9-10, 11-12, 13-14

Our God will come and save us.

SECOND READING 1 Thessalonians 3:12 -- 4:2

May the Lod strengthen your hearts

for the coming of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION John 3:16

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might have eternal life.

GOSPEL Luke 19:1-10

The Son of Man has come to seek and to save what was lost.

HOMILY

The assembly is now invited to make an examination of conscience. This can be done in silence or by using the sample examination below. One reader alone may read the questions or two readers might alternate. Allow a brief period of silence between each one.

Reader #1: How have I failed to worship God in private and communal prayer?

- Do I receive the sacraments regularly?
- Do I keep Sundays and holy days sacred?
- Do I value the sacrament of reconciliation? Do I sincerely want to be set free from sin, to turn again to God and to begin a new life in deeper friendship with God?
- Have I tried to grow in my faith through prayer and the reading of the word of God?
- Do I pray daily?
- Do I trust God's goodness and providence, even in times of crisis and doubt?

Reader #2: How have I failed to use the gifts of God in daily living?

- Do I respect my own body as a gift from God?
- Do I control my vices, including abuses of food and drink?
- Have I made good use of the gifts God has given me?
- Do I work too hard and too long? Do I neglect my family and health?
- Have I been lazy and given too much time to leisure or entertainment?

Reader #1: How have I failed in my relationships with others?

- In my household, have I contributed to the well-being and happiness of the rest of my family? Am I patient? Am I loving?
- Do I treat my parents [children] with respect?

- Am I ever angry with those I love?
- Have I been faithful in my relationships?
- Have I imposed my will on others without respecting their freedom and rights? Am I intolerant of other's ideas or needs?
- Have I perpetuated racism, prejudices and stereotypes?
- Do I treat people with disabilities with respect?
- Have I indulged in reading, conversation, or entertainments that are contrary to Christian decency and respect for human life?

Reader #2: Have I failed to share God's love with the world?

- Do I share my time and my treasure with others in need?
- When I saw someone hungry, did I give them food?
- When I saw someone thirsty, did I give them drink?
- When I saw someone needing clothing, did I clothe them?
- When I saw a stranger, did I welcome them?
- When someone was homebound or imprisoned, did I visit them?
- When someone was ill, did I care for them?
- Do I fail to speak out on behalf of the poor or the oppressed?
- Do I use the earth's resources wisely?

THE RITE OF RECONCILIATION

GENERAL CONFESSION OF SINS

At the invitation of the Deacon, or of another minister, all kneel or bow, and together say a general formula (e.g., I confess to almighty God) for confession. Then they stand and, if appropriate, use a litany or an appropriate liturgical song.

Deacon or

Minister: Brothers and sisters, confess your sins, and pray for one another that you may be saved.

All: I confess to almighty God and to you my brothers and sisters,

that I have greatly sinned,

in my thoughts and in my words,

in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault;

therefore I ask blessed Mary, ever-Virgin,

all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

LITANY

Deacon or

Minister: Let us humbly pray to Christ our Savior, whom we have as a righteous advocate with the Father,

that he will forgive us our sins and cleanse us from all iniquity.

Deacon or

Minister: You were sent to bring good news to the poor and to heal the contrite of heart.

All: Lord, be merciful to me, a sinner.

OR: Lord, have mercy.

Deacon or

Minister: You did not come to call the righteous, but sinners.

All: Lord, be merciful to me, a sinner.

OR: Lord, have mercy.

Deacon or

Minister: You forgave much to the woman who loved much.

All: Lord, be merciful to me, a sinner.

OR: Lord, have mercy.

Deacon or

Minister: You did not refuse to sit at table with tax collectors and sinners.

All: Lord, be merciful to me, a sinner.

OR: Lord, have mercy.

Deacon or

Minister: You carried the lost sheep on your shoulders back to the fold.

All: Lord, be merciful to me, a sinner.

OR: Lord, have mercy.

Deacon or

Minister: You did not condemn the woman taken in adultery

but told her to go in peace.

All: Lord, be merciful to me, a sinner.

OR: Lord, have mercy.

Deacon or

Minister: You called Zacchaeus the tax collector to conversion and new life.

All: Lord, be merciful to me, a sinner.

OR: Lord, have mercy.

Deacon or

Minister: You promised paradise to the repentant thief.

All: Lord, be merciful to me, a sinner.

OR: Lord, have mercy.

Deacon or

Minister: You are seated at the right hand of the Father, and live for ever to intercede for us.

All: Lord, be merciful to me, a sinner.

OR: Lord, have mercy.

LORD'S PRAYER

Deacon or

Minister: Let us now pray together to the Father

as Christ himself commanded us, that, as we forgive one another our trespasses,

he will forgive us our sins:

Our Father ...

PRAYER

Priest: Almighty and eternal God, who by the Incarnation of your Only Begotten Son mercifully reconciled the world to your majesty,

grant, we pray,

that the clouds of sin may flee from hearts made tranquil and that, as the light grows stronger, the mysteries of the Lord's Nativity may always be celebrated with unsullied joy.

Through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

INDIVIDUAL CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION

The presider or other minister might tell the assembly where the confessors will be located. Some brief words regarding the manner of confession should be given. The people may be encouraged to accept one of the penances which are found in the worship aid or the confessors may give a penance suited to the individual. The assembly may be advised to remain in church if there is to be a common ending. Quiet instrumental music might be played during this time.

PRAYER OF ABSOLUTION

Confessor: God, the Father of mercies, through the Death and Resurrection of his Son has reconciled the world to himself and poured out the Holy Spirit for the forgiveness of sins;

through the ministry of the Church may God grant you pardon and peace.

AND I ABSOLVE YOU FROM YOUR SINS,

IN THE NAME OF THE FATHER, AND OF THE SON, ₹

AND OF THE HOLY SPIRIT.

Penitent: Amen.

PROCLAMATION OF PRAISE FOR GOD'S MERCY

Psalm 98:1, 2-3b, 3c-4, 5-6, 7-9b, 9cd

R: The Lord has remembered his merciful love.

O sing a new song to the LORD, for he has worked wonders. His right hand and his holy arm have brought salvation.

R: The Lord has remembered his merciful love.

The LORD has made known his salvation, has shown his deliverance to the nations. He has remembered his merciful love and his truth for the house of Israel.

R: The Lord has remembered his merciful love.

All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God. Shout to the LORD, all the earth; break forth into joyous song, and sing out your praise.

R: The Lord has remembered his merciful love.

Sing psalms to the LORD with the harp, with the harp and the sound of song. With trumpets and the sound of the horn raise a shout before the King, the LORD.

R: The Lord has remembered his merciful love.

Let the sea and all within it thunder; the world, and those who dwell in it. Let the rivers clap their hands, and the hills ring out their joy at the presence of the LORD, for he comes, he comes to judge the earth.

R: The Lord has remembered his merciful love.

He will judge the world with justice, and the peoples with faithfulness.

R: The Lord has remembered his merciful love.

ALTERNATES: The Magnificat, a hymn, litany or psalm may be prayed in acknowledgment of God's power and compassion. See the enclosed music suggestions or use one of the Scripture citations below.

Psalm 28:6-7 Psalm 136: 1-9, 13-14, 16, 25-29

Psalm 32: 1-7, 10-11 Psalm 145:1, 9, 10-11, 12-13

Revelation 15: 3-4

CONCLUDING PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Presider: Almighty and merciful God, who wonderfully created human nature, and still more wonderfully restored it,

you do not abandon sinners,

but pursue them with a father's love;

you sent your Son into the world to destroy sin and death by his Passion and restore life and joy by the Resurrection;

you poured the Holy Spirit into our hearts that we might be your children and heirs;

vou constantly renew us by the Sacraments of salvation, that we may be freed from slavery to sin and be transformed more fully day by day into the image of your beloved Son.

We give you thanks for the wonders of your mercy and praise you with the whole Church, singing to you a new song with voice, heart, and deed.

To you be glory, through Christ, in the Holy Spirit,

now and for ever.

All: Amen.

THE CONCLUDING RITES

GREETING

Presider: The Lord be with you.

All: And with your spirit.

Deacon: Bow down for the blessing

BLESSING

Presider: May the Father,

who has given us birth to eternal life, bless us.

All: Amen.

Presider: May the Son,

who died for us and rose again, grant us salvation.

All: Amen.

Presider: May the Spirit,

who has been poured into our hearts and has lead us back onto the right path, sanctify us.

All: Amen.

Presider: And may almighty God bless you,

the Father, and the Son, ₩ and the Holy Spirit.

All: Amen.

DISMISSAL

Deacon or

Minister: The Lord has forgiven your sins.

Go in peace.

All: Thanks be to God.

OPTION B: AN EXAMINATION OF CONSCIENCE IN LIGHT OF CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING

Copyright © 2010, United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. All rights reserved.

The assembly is now invited to make an examination of conscience. This can be done in silence or by using the examination below. Two readers might alternate. Allow a brief period of silence between each question or phrase.

Life and Dignity of the Human Person

- ❖ Do I respect the life and dignity of every human person from conception through natural death?
- ❖ Do I recognize the face of Christ reflected in all others around me whatever their race, class, age, or abilities?
- ❖ Do I work to protect the dignity of others when it is being threatened?
- ❖ Am I committed to both protecting human life and to ensuring that every human being is able to live in dignity?

Call to Family, Community, and Participation

- ❖ Do I try to make positive contributions in my family and in my community?
- ❖ Are my beliefs, attitudes, and choices such that they strengthen or undermine the institution of the family?
- Am I aware of problems facing my local community and involved in efforts to find solutions? Do I stay informed and make my voice heard when needed?
- ❖ Do I support the efforts of poor persons to work for change in their neighborhoods and communities? Do my attitudes and interactions empower or disempower others?

Rights and Responsibilities

- ❖ Do I recognize and respect the economic, social, political, and cultural rights of others?
- Do I live in material comfort and excess while remaining insensitive to the needs of others whose rights are unfulfilled?
- ❖ Do I take seriously my responsibility to ensure that the rights of persons in need are realized?
- ❖ Do I urge those in power to implement programs and policies that give priority to the human dignity and rights of all, especially the vulnerable?

Option for the Poor and Vulnerable

- ❖ Do I give special attention to the needs of the poor and vulnerable in my community and in the world?
- ❖ Am I disproportionately concerned for my own good at the expense of others?
- ❖ Do I engage in service and advocacy work that protects the dignity of poor and vulnerable persons?

The Dignity of Work and the Rights of Workers

- ❖ As a worker, do I give my employer a fair day's work for my wages? As an owner, do I treat workers fairly?
- ❖ Do I treat all workers with whom I interact with respect, no matter their position or class?

- ❖ Do I support the rights of all workers to adequate wages, health insurance, vacation and sick leave? Do I affirm their right to form or join unions or worker associations?
- ❖ Do my purchases take into account the hands involved in the production of what I buy? When possible, do I buy products produced by workers whose rights and dignity were respected?

Solidarity

- ❖ Does the way I spend my time reflect a genuine concern for others?
- ❖ Is solidarity incorporated into my prayer and spirituality? Do I lift up vulnerable people throughout the world in my prayer, or is it reserved for only my personal concerns?
- ❖ Am I attentive only to my local neighbors or also those across the globe?
- Do I see all members of the human family as my brothers and sisters?

Care for God's Creation

- ❖ Do I live out my responsibility to care for God's creation?
- ❖ Do I see my care for creation as connected to my concern for poor persons, who are most at risk from environmental problems?
- ❖ Do I litter? Live wastefully? Use energy too freely? Are there ways I could reduce consumption in my life?
- ❖ Are there ways I could change my daily practices and those of my family, school, workplace, or community to better conserve the earth's resources for future generations?

READINGS

FIRST READING

Isaiah 35:1-6a, 10

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah

The desert and the parched land will exult;
the steppe will rejoice and bloom.
They will bloom with abundant flowers,
and rejoice with joyful song.
The glory of Lebanon will be given to them,
the splendor of Carmel and Sharon;
They will see the glory of the LORD,
the splendor of our God.

Strengthen the hands that are feeble,
make firm the knees that are weak,
Say to those whose hearts are frightened:
Be strong, fear not!
Here is your God,
he comes with vindication;
With divine recompense
he comes to save you.
Then will the eyes of the blind be opened,
the ears of the deaf be cleared;
Then will the lame leap like a stag,
then the tongue of the mute will sing,

Those whom the LORD has ransomed will return and enter Zion singing, crowned with everlasting joy; They will meet with joy and gladness sorrow and mourning will flee.

The word of the Lord.

Our God will come and save us!

I will hear what God proclaims; the LORD – for he proclaims peace to his people. Near indeed is his salvation to those who fear him, glory dwelling in our land.

Our God will come and save us!

Kindness and truth shall meet;
justice and peace shall kiss.

Truth will spring from the earth,
and justice shall look down from heaven.

Our God will come and save us!

The LORD himself will give his benefits; our land shall yield its increase. Justice shall walk before him, and prepare the way of his steps.

Our God will come and save us!

SECOND READING

1 Thessalonians 3:12 -- 4:2

A reading from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Thessalonians

Brothers and sisters:

May the Lord make you increase and abound in love for one another and for all, just as we have for you, so as to strengthen your hearts, to be blameless in holiness before our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his holy ones. Amen.

Finally, brothers and sisters,
we earnestly ask and exhort you in the Lord Jesus that,
as you received from us
how you should conduct yourselves to please God
-- and as you are conducting yourselves -you do so even more.

For you know what instructions we gave you through the Lord Jesus.

The word of the Lord.

Alleluia, alleluia.

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might have eternal life.

Alleluia, alleluia.

GOSPEL Luke 19:1-10

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke.

At that time, Jesus came to Jericho and intended to pass through town.

Now a man there named Zacchaeus, who was a chief tax collector and also a wealthy man,

was seeking to see who Jesus was;

but he could not see him because of the crowd.

for he was short in stature.

So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree in order to see Jesus, who was about to pass that way.

When he reached the place, Jesus looked up and said

"Zacchaeus, come down quickly,

for today I must stay at your house."

And he came down quickly and received him with joy.

When they all saw this, they began to grumble, saying,

"He has gone to stay at the house of a sinner."

But Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord,

"Behold, half of my possessions, Lord, I shall give to the poor, and if I have exhorted anything from anyone

I shall repay it four times over."

And Jesus said to him,

"Today salvation has come to this house

because this man too is a descendant of Abraham.

For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save what was lost."

The Gospel of the Lord.

SAMPLE PENANCES

CHOOSE ONE OF THE FOLLOWING PENANCES AS A WAY OF ACCEPTING GOD'S MERCY.

- During the next week, spend an hour in prayer for those who are the victims of abuse or neglect. Read Matthew 25:31-46.
- As a family, prepare a basket of food or toiletries and give it to a family in need.
- Skip a meal at your favorite restaurant. Use the money to purchase a Christmas gift for a person served by a parish organization or local charity.
- Identify a person whom you have offended since your last confession and pray for them each day for a week.
- Think of someone you have been especially uncharitable towards and send a Christmas card with a note of kindness attached to it.
- Work at a soup kitchen or food pantry during Advent for a couple of hours.
- Reflect on the Beatitudes.....find someone who meets one of those needs, such as one who mourns, and send them a note or visit them during Advent.
- Speak a word of affirmation to each member of your household this week. Make an effort to lift a burden from one of your friends or family members.
- Offer to share something you have or something you're doing with someone who would appreciate it.
- Make time for prayer (ten minutes or so) and ask God if there is something He would like to say to you... and LISTEN.
- Call or write a note to someone who may be lonely or in need of "comfort and joy".
- Gather your family members for a reading of the "Christmas Story" from the Gospel of Matthew or Luke. Discuss what it means to them and to you.
- Include a weekday Mass in your plans during Advent.
- Every morning until Christmas, say a Hail Mary for peace.
- Reach out to a lonely person at school. Invite him or her to sit with you and your friends.
- Prayerfully pray Psalm 51.
- For one whole week, do the dishes or set the table without being asked.
- Give up some leisure time to shovel an elderly neighbor's driveway.

THE NATIVITY OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST

"The announcement of the Solemnity of the Nativity of the Lord from the Roman Martyrology draws upon Sacred Scripture to declare in a formal way the birth of Christ. It begins with creation and relates the birth of the Lord to the major events and personages of sacred and secular history. The particular events contained in this announcement help pastorally to situate the birth of Jesus in the context of salvation history" (The Roman Missal, Appendix I).

"This text, The Nativity of our Lord Jesus Christ, may be chanted or recited, most appropriately on December 24, during the celebration of the Liturgy of the Hours [following the introductory verse and preceding the hymn]. It may also be chanted or recited before the beginning of Christmas Mass during the Night. It may not replace any part of the Mass" (ibid.).

It may be sung or recited at the ambo by a deacon, cantor, or reader. -- RT

After the greeting, the presider may introduce the Mass and the proclamation in these or similar words:

Presider: Throughout the season of Advent,

the Church reflected on God's promises,

so often spoken by the prophets,

to send a Savior to the people of Israel who would be Emmanuel,

that is, God with us.

In the fullness of time, those promises were fulfilled.

With hearts full of joy,

let us listen to the proclamation of our Savior's birth.

THE NATIVITY OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST (THE CHRISTMAS PROCLAMATION)

From the Roman Martyrology - see Roman Missal, third edition (page 1450-1452, USCCB edition)

This proclamation is chanted or recited on December 24 during the Liturgy of the Hours or before the beginning of Midnight Mass. It may not replace any part of the Mass. The underlines are provided here to assist the minister who will chant it.

The twenty-fifth day of December,
when ages beyond number had run their course
from the creation of the world,
when God in the beginning created heaven and earth,
and formed man in his own likeness;
when century upon century had passed since the Almighty set his bow in the clouds after the Great Flood, as a sign of covenant and peace;
in the twenty-first century since Abraham, our father in faith, came out of the Ur of the Chaldees;

in the thirteenth century since the People of Israel were led by Moses in the Exodus from Egypt;

around the thousandth year since David was anointed King; in the sixty-fifth week of the prophecy of Daniel; in the one hundred and ninety-fourth Olympiad; in the year seven hundred and fifty-two since the foundation of the City of Rome;

in the forty-second year of the reign of Caesar Octavian Augustus, the world being at peace, $\,$

JESUS CHRIST, eternal God and Son of the eternal Father, desiring to consecrate the world by his most loving presence, was conceived by the Holy Spirit, and when nine months had passed since his conception, was born of the Virgin Mary in Bethlehem of Judah, and was made man:

The Nativity of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to the flesh.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT OF EASTER AND THE MOVEABLE FEASTS

to be sung on the Solemnity of the Epiphany
After the singing of the Gospel, the deacon or cantor may chant the following.
For chant notation, please see The Roman Missal, Appendix, page 1448-1449 (USCCB edition).

Know, dear brethren, (brothers and sisters), that, as we have rejoiced at the Nativity of our Lord Jesus Christ, so by leave of God's mercy we announce to you also the joy of his Resurrection, who is our Savior.

On the fifth day of March will fall Ash Wednesday, and the beginning of the fast of the most sacred Lenten season.

On the twentieth day of April you will celebrate with joy Easter Day, the Paschal feast of our Lord Jesus Christ.

On the twenty-ninth day of May, (On the first day of June,) * will be the Ascension of our Lord Jesus Christ.

On the eighth day of June, the feast of Pentecost.

On the twenty-second day of June, the feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ.

On the thirtieth day of November, the First Sunday of Advent of our Lord Jesus Christ, to whom is honor and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

^{*}The Ascension of the Lord will be celebrated on Thursday, May 29, in five provinces of the United States. In all other dioceses, the Ascension will be celebrated on Sunday, June 1.

ABOUT THE FEDERATION OF DIOCESAN LITURGICAL COMMISSIONS

The Federation of Diocesan Liturgical Commissions was founded in 1969 by the then Bishops' Committee on the Liturgy in order to assist with the implementation of the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy and the revised liturgical books. Our mission remains the same. The members of our Federation continue to serve bishops, clergy, and parish liturgists in our roles as directors of Offices of Worship and members of diocesan liturgical commissions.

We hope this free resource will be of benefit to you and to your parish. Other publications -- including books, pamphlets, and downloadable bulletin inserts -- are available at www.fdlc.org.

We routinely provide opportunities for liturgical formation. In recent years, these have included free online webinars on the Liturgical Books, the Liturgical Year, the parts of the Mass, the History of the Liturgical Reform, the newly-translated Order of Christian Initiation of Adults, and the adoration and exposition of the Holy Eucharist outside Mass.

Associate Members are entitled to online resources, discounts on publications, and discounts to national meetings. For more information on Associate Membership, please visit www.fdlc.org/membership.
